Grupo Nutresa S. A. (NUTRESA: BVC) informs that it has completed the purchase of a 51% interest in Atlantic FS S.A.S. (AFS), a transaction that was announced on March 6 this year.

AFS is a company headquartered in Colombia, focused on food distribution in the institutional channel. The completion of this transaction transforms AFS into a Grupo Nutresa subsidiary company.

The amount paid for the mentioned ownership interest was COP 47.12 billion.

The company

Atlantic Food Service is a leading company in the institutional or food service channel in Colombia, providing its clients with a superior service by means of a diversified product portfolio focused on the “main component of the dish.” The company operates in the largest Colombian cities: Bogotá, Medellín, Cartagena, Barranquilla, Cali, Cúcuta and Bucaramanga.

With this investment, Grupo Nutresa supplements its participation in the food service business, a dynamic channel driven by the growing consumption of meals outside the household and by the rise of tourism in Colombia.

In addition, AFS strengthens the Organization’s strategy that consists in offering nourishing food that generates wellness and delight among consumers, clients and buyers in different channels, always with the best price-value ratio.
